Says Sealing Meters Will Swell Revenues

Sealing water meters in Mokena will add considerably to the revenue of the village, it was brought out at the last meeting of the village board, and its attorney, Ronald Galowich has been instructed to draft an ordinance covering the situation.

The water committee has been studying the problem and the members were unanimous in favoring such a step.

When board members asked Village Engineer Ralph Yunker for an estimate as to the amount of water lost thru lack of seals on the meters he said that the village is losing about 50% of the revenue from the water department.

Approval was given a proposal to install a master meter in each unit of the apartments planned for Wolf road, near First.

Mayor Charles Swanberg suggested the village install a master meter to determine the amount of water being pumped and paid for. Yunker is to check on the cost of such a meter.

The board was informed by Trustee Weitendorf that the sewage disposal plant was practically flooded as a result of recent rains and the answer appeared to be that too many residents are in violation of the village ordinance and state law which bans connecting roof drains with sanitary sewers.

The board instructed the village engineer to arrange with Hulett Co. for some sample smoke tests to determine where surface water is entering the sewer mains. Orland Park and Frankfort make use of such tests.

Fun Fair At Arbury Hills Is Oct. 17

October 17, the big day for Arbury Hills Fun Fair, is fast approaching. All is in readiness for the fun-filled fund raiser, according to co-chairman Herb Neumayer and Mrs. Tom Tanis. The theme of this year's fair is "Fun Fairs Around the World."

Take Second Bids On I-80 Projects In Area

Bids have been opened again at Springfield on proposed garde separations for FAI-80 in the New Lenox area. This is the second time bids have been submitted on a structure over Hickory Creek, the Rock Island tracks and Route 30 near Providence high school, and for the New York Central tracks in that area to cross the expressway.

Arcole Midwest Corp., Evanston, was apparent low bidder on the separations involving the creek, the Rock Island and U.S. 30 and Joliet Bridge and Construction Co. apparently had the low figure on the New York Central subway.

On the previous occasion no contracts were let, the state highway department explaining that the bids were too high -- exceeding the engineers' estimates.

Whether there will be a letting this time was not indicated in the news dispatches from Springfield.

Organizations in the area interested in getting FAI-80 completed between Hazel Crest and Joliet are asking the Will county board of supervisors to bring what pressure it can on the state to get work started on the project. A resolution to this effect has been signed by heads of the Mokena Chamber of Commerce, the Mokena Lions club, the church council of St. John's United Church of Christ of Mokena, The Mokena PTA, the Mokena Garden club, the Mokena Woman's club and the New Lenox Association of Commerce.

Officials and individuals in South Cook county towns also are urging action on building the "missing link" of FAI-80.

It is reported that the principal reason why work has been delayed on FAI-80 is because most of the funds available for highway purposes has been siphoned off for projects in the city of Chicago. Ninety per cent of the money for interstate highway facilities comes from the federal government.

A grade separation involving U.S. 45 in the vicinity of 183rd st. has been included yet in any call for bids nor any other separations in Will county east of Joliet other than those alluded to at the beginning of this article.

Anticipate $5,000 Deficit In H.S. Dist. 230 Budget

Even tho it contained a deficit of about $5,000, the board of education for Consolidated High School District 230 adopted the budget for the 1964-65 school year at its Sept. 28 meeting. As approved by the group, the budget goes into effect immediately.

The deficit occurs in the building fund, which supplies money for equipping, heating, cleaning and lighting both Sandburg and Stagg high schools. In effect, the budget anticipates that these expenses will be at least $5,000 higher than expected income.

As originally drafted, the budget showed a deficit of $26,000 in the building fund, but school officials were able to pull the figure down by transferring certain expenses to other funds and by levying the maximum amount permissible for the building fund.

The tax levied for the educational, building and bond funds by District 230 will total $1.81 per $100 assessed valuation. Last year it was $1.74, with the seven-cent increase coming in the building and transportation funds.

About two-thirds of the budget, which totals nearly $2 million, will go for educational expenses. With a 15 per cent increase in the size of the staff and a salary increase of approximately 10 per cent, nearly $1 million will be paid to teachers in salaries.

W. O. Fisher, superintendent, told board members that the budget anticipates a 4% increase in the assessed valuation, based upon the "best estimates" available. Enrollments, however, are up about 15 per cent.

"We anticipate the same thing again next year," Fisher said, indicating that enrollments will continue to increase nearly four times as rapidly as the tax base.

In other action, board members:

Authorized Fisher to sell up to $700,000 in tax anticipation warrants during the school year.

Reaffirmed its decision to transport students to away games so long as it caused the district no expense.

Ordered a safety inspection and a survey of the sewage disposal system at Sandburg.

Reviewed the annual audit of district funds, which showed that they are all in proper order.

Approved a number of bills payable.

Fisher outlined plans for his 28-day vacation, starting Oct. 17. The trip will be Fisher's first vacation in the past three years. "But Stagg high is finished and both schools are in capable hands. I think I can afford the time off now," he said.

Not all the tax anticipation warrants are expected to be sold immediately, but only as they are needed over the course of the year. Warrants are a method of borrowing money against a portion of tax revenues not yet collected in order to finance current operations. Normally they bear about 3 per cent interest, it was said.

In deciding to continue its policy of transporting students to away games for a 50-cent charge, board members expressed the view that "organized participation in school programs, whether as a spectator or participant, is a definite part of the school curriculum. It should be encouraged in every way possible."

As set up by the board, the program is self-supporting.

The safety inspection authorized at Sandburg grows out of legislation passed in the most recent session of the state legislature, which set rigid fire regulations for schools. Under the law, all schools must hire an architectural firm to study its fire safety procedures.

Many of the requirements were incorporated into Stagg high as it was being built.

Board members also asked for a survey of the sewage system at Sandburg, which is operating at, or near, capacity. Schmidt, Garden and Erikson, the firm which designed Stagg high, will make the study.

Board members put into the minutes an expression "of satisfaction with the work, and gratification for the services" of the firm in building Stagg high school. "They gave us a lot of building designed as simply and functionally as possible," Fisher said.

Board member Paul Erlandson also invited comment from the firm about the acoustics in the Stagg gymnasium. The group instructed Fisher to "explore ways to improve them with a minimal expenditure."

The group approved the payroll for the period ending Sept. 15 in the amount of $58,148.55; bills payable totaling $113,695.88; construction bills in the amount of $17,510.55; and payments of approximately $190,000 to Fred Berglund and Son for work at Stagg high and $23,355 to Newgren Construction for work at Sandburg.

Pick Cast For Sandburg Play All But The Cat

The cast for the fall play at Carl Sandburg high school has been announced by Miss Marilee Thanholdt, director. "Everybody Loves Opal," a rollicking comedy set in a junkyard, is scheduled for production Nov. 13 and 14.

Jenny Slack, president of the Sandburg chapter of National Thespians, will play the title role. Director of last year's contest play, she has performed in "The Mouse That Roared," "The Night of January 16," and "Okla-homa!"

With her will be Madolynn Scheel, cast as a cheap hussy. Miss Scheel, a senior, played in four plays during her junior year and has been in the speech contest for three. Vice-president of Thespians, she plans to major in dramatics.

Mike Brasel, who is cast as a sophisticated has-been, is a former chairman of the board of the Mercury Children's Theater Guild where he played in one production. He is producer of the "Moods of Music" homeroom show, broadcast at Sandburg each Friday and entered radio speaking in the speech contest for the past two years. He is chief reporter on the staff of the "Aquila," the Sandburg Student newspaper.

Rounding out the major parts will be Marc Stephen Ling, who comes to "Opal" from a background of working on stage crews and participating in speech contests.

Supporting the quartet will be Rob Nebe, a neophyte actor who will play the part of a crochety old doctor. Artie Schuber, who appeared in the speech contest play last year and is doing the homeroom show this year, will appear as a policeman.

Special guest star will be a cat, yet to be chosen, Miss Thanholdt said. The plot revolves around three of the characters in the John Patrick play which attempt to kill the cat to collect an insurance policy.

Group Will See Fancy Cooking Demonstration

MRS. EDWARD HOVI
Telephone: 479-5740

The Arbury Hills Kindergarten Organization will hold their regular meeting at the school next Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m.

The group will be treated to a food and cake decorating demonstration.

The kindergarten organization cordially invites not only its membership, but also any others interested.

This is the last call for anyone who wishes to view the Christmas card folder before the order is placed by Mrs. Edward Blecha, the committee chairman of the kindergarten group.

The kindergarten class had a field trip to the Yonkers Dairy Farm across from the Mokena Community park recently. Mr. Yonkers graciously led the children on a tour of the milk shed and the barn while telling them how the milking machines are used and how the animals are fed.

They were shown the grain storage unit and had it explained the grain would be used throughout the entire winter to feed all the animals.

The children saw the pigs and young cows which were not in pasture, including a two week old calf.

The tour concluded with a trip to the apple and pear orchard and as a final treat, Mr. Yonker presented the group with two pumpkins to be used in the classroom.

The Junior Girl Scout Troop 103 under the direction of Mrs. Alice Kilgore and her co-leader, Mrs. Mary Harris, led their girls in a hike to Mokena Park. The girls did additional hiking and nature study while there, and then ate their sack lunch supplemented by a hot dish at the park. The girls were brought home by car, since this was the first hiking experience for some of the girls.

The boys of Cub Scout Pack 10 were treated to a trip to Comisky Park to see the White Sox play baseball on the last Saturday of the season. The White Sox treated them royally with an exciting win for the home team.

LWV Sets Up Workshops For Area Planning

No city, no neighborhood, no community is perfect. If we feel ours is a wonderful place to live, does complacency blind us to defects in community services, in subdivision control, in traffic patterns? What can be done to avoid basic flaws in community development which, if not fatal, may later prove costly and inconvenient to rectify?

These and related questions will be discussed at the October unit meetings of the Palos-Orland League of Women Voters. The first meeting on area planning will be held Monday, Oct. 19, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. George Bosworth, 12300 Harold, Palos Heights. Those who cannot attend in the evening are invited to attend the similar meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 20, at 9:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Curtis Rockwood, 12232 S. 68th Crt., Palos Heights.

Mrs. Robert Harwig, area planning chairman for the Palos-Orland League, is so enthusiastic about the scope and importance of this subject that she, and her committee of six are planning a series of monthly workshops for League members and friends.

Dispute Over Water Results In Law Suit

(CNS) - Thaddeus C. Pnazeck, 8837 W. 131st pl., Orland Park, has filed suit in circuit court, asking that his neighbor be forced to remove a retaining wall which allegedly stops the natural drainage of water from Pnazeck's property.
The neighbor, Walter F. Tompkins, 8847 W. 131st pl., Orland Park, built the wall on Sept. 8, the suit states, and since then surface water backs up, spreads, and stands in the Pnazeck yard. In his suit in headquarters co. at the resident school for boys conducted by the Benedictine Fathers

The MYF of the Methodist church will be collecting canned goods for the Rosecrance Memorial Home for Boys in Rockford, on Sunday, Oct. 18. Those wishing to donate should call 479-5850.

Pnazeck asks an injunction to prevent Tompkins from maintaining the wall. He has asked Tompkins to remove it, but he refuses, the complaint states.
For many years it has been the natural drainage route that water in the Pnazeck yard drains in a westerly direction until it empties into a ditch on Wabash Railroad company land, the suit avers. When Tompkins built his retaining wall on the east side of his land, that drainage path was obstructed, the complainant declares.

Now—buy a new electric dryer and save up to $60

You'll get the $20 to $40 savings you normally expect when you buy a flameless electric dryer instead of gas—plus a special $20 cash discount from Commonwealth Edison. And once you buy a new flameless electric dryer, you'll find the savings don't end with the purchase price. Because there are few moving parts, electric dryers are more economical to maintain. With no pilot light, they cost nothing when not in use. An average family can dry the modern electric way for only $1.25 a month.* What's more, because there are no fumes, flames or products of combustion, things keep fresh and new looking longer—you'll save money on your clothes.

See your dealer for the money-saving details now. No down payment. Satisfaction on any flameless electric dryer guaranteed, of course.

Distaff Golf

BY BIRDIE McDIVOTT

Eighteen members of Willow Run Women's Golf Club had a delightful luncheon last week at which time the following trophies and awards were given:

The low net for the season went to Helen Churchill. She received a plaque with her name inscribed. Vera Richardson, Esther Hug and Toot Muehler received trophy cups with their names inscribed as 2nd, 3rd, and 4th place respectively. The following received achievement awards as runners-up - Marge Istel, Bea Olson, Chuck Sondergaard, Grace Mitchell and Betty Nelson.

Helen Churchill received a salad set for winning the match game in July. Esther Hug received a golf pin and towel holder for runnerup. Grace Mitchell received a trophy for the match game in August and Chuck Sondergaard a golf pin for runnerup. Vera Richardson and Esther Hug tied for stroke play in September and each received a beautiful trophy as well as Helen Churchill who came in 3rd.

Bea Olson received a cute ceramic golf hat planter as the person who lowered her handicap the most over the season. This planter as well as another which was awarded to Vera Richardson in a drawing were used as decorations on the table.

During the season, Vera Richardson, Helen Churchill and Bea Olson each won six golf balls; Toot Muehler and Chuck Sondergaard each won four; Marge Istel and Jean Berg each won two; and Esther Hug and Dorothy Loucks each won one. Since Betty Nelson was the only constant player who had not won one during the year, we awarded her one at this time.

Margaret Lenz was given a gift from the group in appreciation of her help during the season.

Helen Churchill and Vera Richardson took care of the decorations and the ordering of the awards and trophies. Each member had a clever golf place card setting.

22 have already signed up for the next season. Anyone who might be interested in joining our group for next year phone Betty Nelson 479-5269.

After much chit-chat and reminiscing over the season, we were reluctant to leave and as a result decided to get together during the winter season to play bridge. Anyone interested in joining us for a game or two, phone Toot Muehler 479-3931.

See you next season?

School Deans Discuss Problems At L-W

A dean's lot is not a happy one, to paraphrase Gilbert and Sullivan, but his job is most important these days in the control and discipline in secondary schools.

So said Supt. A. Hunter Chapman, or words to that effect, in welcoming the Suburban Deans Association which held its first meeting of the year at Lincoln-Way.

Joe Kruzich, dean at Lincoln-Way is president of the deans' group and presided at the session.

The guest speaker was Magistrate George Sangmeister, of the Mokena branch of the Will county circuit court. He discussed "School Law and the Grey Areas of School Law."

Under Illinois law, he pointed out, school boards have wide powers over employees and pupils. A teacher is described as a person responsible for maintaining order and discipline.

In discussing reasonable corporal punishment, Magistrate Sangmeister said that the question of what is reasonable is something for a jury to consider but pointed out that under Illinois law it is up to the complainant to prove that the teacher's action was unreasonable. The teachers is automatically regarded as having taken reasonable action.

The deans discussed many situations, including early arrivals and how to cope with them. Student traffic in the halls is another problem. One school prohibits talking and loitering.

Vandalism is treated in different ways. Some schools suspend students who damage school property; some withhold grades until restitution is made; another school does not permit the student to take final examinations until damages are paid.

Bus conduct, truancy and detentions were other problems discussed.

Ulcers, it was said, are not uncommon among deans.

Sues Subdividers To Finish Paving Job

Alleging that the developers of Arbury Hills have failed to pave all of the streets in the subdivision as required, the County of Will has filed suit in circuit court asking $104,600.

The suit, prepared by State's Attorney Frank H. Masters, Jr. and Assistant State's Attorney John McGarry, names the following as defendants:

Futuristic Homes, Inc., a corporation; Edward G. Feeley, as an officer of the corporation; Allison S. Feeley, Alfred Gemeinhardt, Edward P. Drumm, Nick DiPaolo, Anthony DiPaolo and the Fidelity and Casualty Co. of New York, which provided the two bonds required of the developers to guarantee fulfillment of the contract covering the building of streets. Other than Edward Feeley the other individual defendants are said to be signers of the bonds.

The suit covers the first and second additions to Arbury Hills. One bond, filed for the first addition is for $48,600 and the one for the second addition is for $56,000. The first was executed Sept. 6, 1960 and the second, Feb. 15, 1961.

Supervisor John Francis, of New Lenox, chairman of the zoning and subdivision committee of the Will county board, has called a meeting of his committee for tomorrow, Oct. 16, to which representatives of the bonding company have been invited, to discuss the situation.

While most of the streets are reported paved the work is not completed, according to residents, and they want it finished.

Reward Scenery Makers With Dinner At School

The Lincoln-Way chapter of the FHA sponsored a dinner on Friday, Oct. 9 from 6 to 7 p.m. at the school for all students who stayed and worked on their flat for homecoming, Oct. 10. A flat, it might be explained is a piece of scenery.

Chairman of the dinner was Kathy Fortman assisted by: Linda Clark, Linda Cole, Karen Erickson, Sharon Peterson, Janice Schram, Linda Summer, Kathy Stegier, Carol Walsh and Donna Youngern. Approximately 140 people were served. Ticket sales chairman was Carol Walsh assisted by Karen Reils, Sharon Peterson and Linda Summer.

The FHA also made a flat which consisted of red and white tissue paper, mounted with a wooden frame with chicken wire. The design was a white L-W Knight, trimmed in black, carrying a sword with red and white pants hanging from the end of it. This scene was to represent licking the pants off the Homewood - Flossmoor Vikings. Chairman of the flat was Marlin Pollock assisted by: Sharon Baker, Judy Bal-

Discuss Planning For Suburban Communities

The fifth session of the Palos-Orland Planning Council dealing with zoning and planning practices was held last night (Oct. 14) at the Palos Country club.

Hosts for the evening were Mayor and Mrs. W.R. Schussler, Jr., of Orland Park, and Mayor and Mrs. Willard Lager, of Palos Park, were the hosts for the evening. Mayor Arthur Cooper, Chicago Ridge, served as session chairman.

The session itself was conducted in the form of a panel discussion with Zay Smith as moderator. The discussion dealt with zoning and planning procedures now

Mathletes Start Second Year At CSHS

Friday marks the opening of one of the newest "sport" seasons at Carl Sandburg high school as the mathletes take on contestants from Homewood-Flossmoor, Lincoln-Way, and Evergreen Park.

Altho the sport is young, only in its second year, the competition is fierce. Last year Sandburg students entered two meets, placing first in one and second in the other. This year they are scheduled for five meets. The competition is broken into four divisions, in each of which it is possible to score a maximum of 150 points.

The first two divisions are comprised of written problems and 15 students from each school compete. The third section is generally considered one of the most difficult because only three students compete on the oral problems. The final section, the slide rule, pits 12 students from each school against each other.

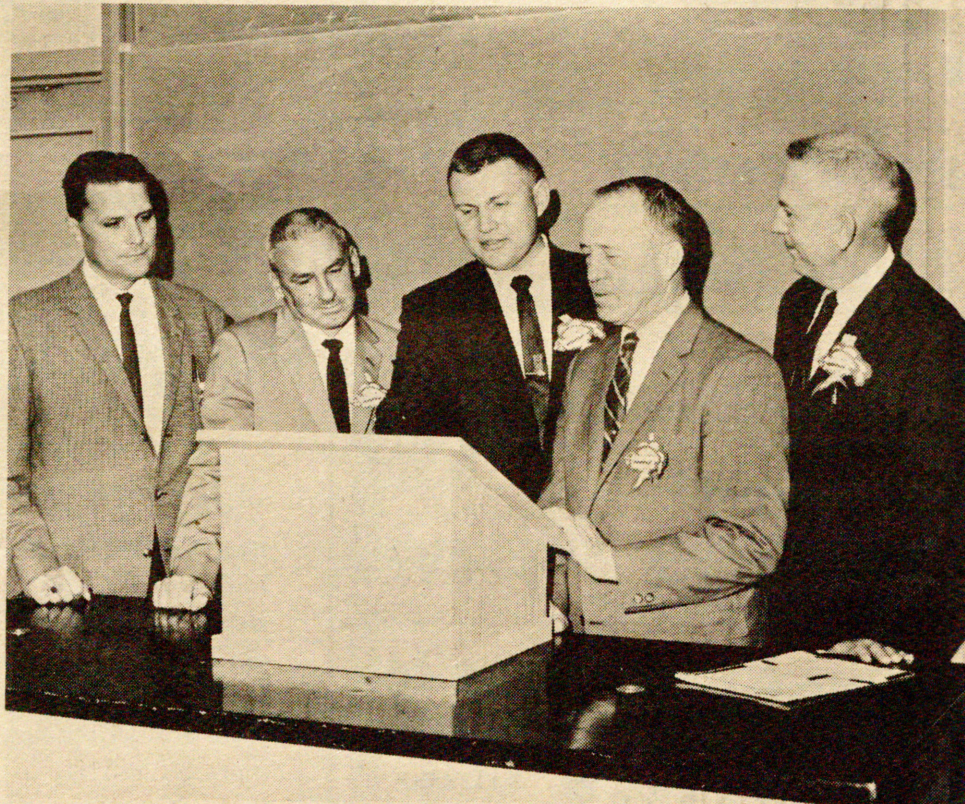

The meet, scheduled for 5:30 p.m. at Sandburg, is open to the public. The second meet of the year is set for Nov. 13.

practiced by municipalities, methods of implementing codes and ordinances, and ways to meet the challenges in the rapidly growing suburban areas.

A major portion of the meeting was given over to audience participation.

On the panel were Thompson Dyke and Paul Beers, of the Northwestern Illinois Planning Commission; Jack Pickford, American Society of Plan Officials; Jack Seigel, an attorney, and Dick Massell, POW consultant.

Members of zoning boards and plan commissions from the ten-town POW area were special guests.

EXAMINING PERTINENT legal cases at the recent meeting of the Suburban Deans Association held at Lincoln-Way high school are, (l to r) Dean Wendell Lowe, Thornton Francional-South, Dean Bill Burghardt, Homewood Flossmoor high; Magistrate George Sangmeister, of Mokena and Frankfort, who was the guest speaker; Supt. A. Hunter Chapman, of Lincoln-Way and Dean Toby Hightower, of Thornton Twp. high school. The president of the dean's group, Joe Kruzich, of Lincoln-Way, had too many things to do to get in the picture.

Annual College Night At Sandburg Set For Oct. 22

Next week will be a busy one for the guidance department at Carl Sandburg, the major events scheduled for both Thursday and Saturday.

College Night, the annual program designed to help students and parents become acquainted with college admission requirements and course offerings, is set for 8 p.m. Oct. 22. The Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT), open to juniors who may go to college, is scheduled for the morning of Oct. 24.

Representatives from about 50 colleges are expected for College Night, according to James L. Adcock, guidance director. The program, which will begin promptly at 8 p.m., is divided into half-hour sessions. This will enable each student and parent to visit three different college presentations. Sponsors of the program request that students and parents be on time and remain with the college counselor for the full 30-minute session.

Lists of the colleges represented and the rooms to which each representative has been assigned will be distributed on Thursday evening. Adcock urged those attending to arrive at the high school by 7:45 p.m. in order to get to the first session on time.

The PSAT, a two-and-one-half hour examination, is designed to measure verbal and mathematical abilities. A number of colleges and universities use PSAT scores in their selection procedure.

Scores on the test are expressed on a scale running from 20 to 80. They are not exact measurements of ability and are interpreted differently by various college officials.

The fee for the test is $1 and students will be admitted to the test center on Saturday only if they present their registration fee receipts. All students taking the exam must be in the boys' gym at Sandburg before 8 a.m.; no one will be admitted after that time.

Registration for the College Entrance Examination Board (CEE), to be given on Dec. 5, is also open. Given only to seniors, the test is tailored to the individual student. Tests available include the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT), the Achievement Test (ACH) and the Writing Sample (WS). Students may take all of these, or selected portions.

Registration for the SAT is $4.50; the ACH, $6.75. The Writing Sample costs $2, with no separate fee charged if it is taken in combination with one or two achievement tests.

Registration closes on Nov. 7. The tests will be administered at Sandburg on Dec. 5.

A partial list of colleges represented at College Night includes:

Victory Over Bremen Spurs Eagles Hopes

BY MARV MILLER
After last week's 13-10 victory over Bremen, Carl Sandburg will try to unseat conference leaders Homewood-Flossmoor. The underdog Eagles will have to match the speedy, undefeated Viking backfield on the H-F field.
Action last week also saw the frosh-soph win over Bremen 20-7, altho the freshmen were whitewashed 27-0.
In the varsity contest, the Eagles win came in the fourth quarter after they trailed 10-0. Scores came on a 20-yard run by Jim McGhee, a fake kick for the extra point by Ed Peterson, and a six-yard pass from Garth Aronson to Roland Roth five minutes later.

The Eagles threatened at the start of the second quarter when Aliano carried the ball within the Bremen 25-yard line on a series of plays which included a 42-yard run. Then the Eagle attack fell apart with a fumble. Two plays later Fred Engleman intercepted a pass for a touchdown, only to have the play called back because of clipping.

After a scoreless first half, Bremen took the lead in the third quarter, when a six-yard pass from quarterback Pat Daly to Steve Snyder gave the Braves a 6-0 lead. The conversion by Snyder was good.
A fumble by the Eagles on their own 31 set up another score. Stanley Strand, whose running and punting kept the Braves threatening throughout the entire game, brought the ball to the Sandburg five. Snyder again entered the scoring column with a field goal to give the Braves a 10-0 lead at the close of the third quarter.
In the fourth quarter, the Eagle offense began to click. In the first three plays of the period, Sandburg roared back to score its first TD which was set up by McGhee who carried the ball from the Sandburg 43 to the Braves' 45 for a first down. Aliano made another first down on a carry to the 20. McGhee then ran off tackle for the score. On a fake kick, Ed Peterson ran around end for the conversion.

On the next series of plays Tony Molitor recovered a fumble on the Bremen 31. Carries by McGhee and Aliano set up an unexpected pass play on which Aronson hit Roth with a 20-yard pass for the winning touchdown.
The fourth quarter was the first time that the Eagles had a chance to show its offense in the second half. Phil Aliano's ball carrying in the first half was the Eagles' only punch, but each scoring threat was stymied by fumbles and penalties.
The sophomore victory came on touchdowns by Rudy Lavine and Ray Zadrovetz. The young Eagles lead all the way. On the first play from scrimmage Lavine carried the ball 70 yards for the touchdown. He then went over for the extra point.
With three minutes left in the second quarter, Zadrovetz carried the ball from within the 10 on two plays for a touchdown. At the end of the third period he again went over from the four yard line. He added the extra point on a run to give the Eagles a 20-0 lead.

The Bremen's sophomores were often on the offensive, their only score came too late. In the fourth quarter Mike White carried for a TD and Richard Strand added the extra point, to make the final score 20-7.

The 27-0 loss suffered by the freshmen was their worst loss of the season. They were trailing 13-0 with three-and-one-half minutes left, when mass substitutions by coach Robert Gadt allowed the junior Braves to score twice again.

Saturday the freshmen will play host to Homewood-Flossmoor at 9 a.m. The frosh-soph, who have defeated Lincoln-Way and Bremen and tied Reavis, will tangle with H-F at noon. At 2 p.m. the varsity will meet undefeated Homewood-Flossmoor, who has shutout its opposition in three of its last four games.

Sandburg Harriers Take On Tinley Pk. Saturday

BY TIM SEDGWICK
Saturday the Carl Sandburg cross country runners will go to the Tinley Park invitational in hopes of taking the frosh-soph division.
Last week the varsity lost 23-24 to Homewood-Flossmoor and 23-32 to Oak Lawn. With this in mind coach John Wilson is taking sophomores John Biddle and Ed Zeman down to the frosh-soph for this invitational in hopes of capturing the first place trophy.
The frosh-sophs will also be headed by Bill Reeves who is undefeated on the sophomore level in the last seven teams faced. Other runners will be Jim Sheehan, Dave Phillips, John Pfeiffer and Bob Smith.

The Varsity team will consist of Chuck Crowhurst, Tim Sedgwick, Steve Raydon, Ted Messlein, Bill Reed, Mark Moyle and Bob Baker.
In competition on the sophomore level last week the sophs tied H-F 28 to 28, but lost to Oak Lawn 26-31.
On the varsity there was improvement, though the Eagles lost to H-F. Biddle won the race in 10:09, which is the fastest time for a Sandburg runner this year. Behind Biddle came Zeman fourth, Crowhurst eighth, Sedgwick 10th, Raydon 11th and Messlein 12th.

Against Oak Lawn Biddle finished third, Crowhurst fifth, Zeman seventh, Messlein eighth, Raydon ninth and Sedgwick 11th.
On the frosh-soph against H-F Reeves took first, Sheehan third, Phillips fifth, Pfeiffer eighth and Smith 11th. Against Oak Lawn Reeves took first again followed by Sheehan fifth, Phillips sixth, Pfeiffer seventh, and Smith 12th.

Burros Play Two Games At Kankakee On Sun.

The Mokena Burros mid-gut football team will play two games Sunday, splitting the team into two eight classes, 75 and 100 lbs. The games will start at 2 p.m. at Byrd park on the northwest side of Kankakee, about three blocks south of Sears shopping center. Mokena will be the decided underdog in both games.
In last Saturday's game, fumbles and the failure of the referee to call a roughing the kicker penalty, cost the Burros their first win. In the first period Duane Pierson went back to kick on the 4th down. He kicked the ball, but was hit by two Cal Park Ram players and knocked down, the kick being blocked. The Rams took the ball on the Mokena 19. The ball should have been awarded to Mokena on their 42. Three plays later the Rams scored the first of three touchdowns. The Burros went to work and moved the ball to the Cal Park 12. Mike Popilek, a hard runner, fumbled and the Burro's lost the ball.

Mokena was also hampered by the fact that Cal Park uses a 100 yd. field. Pop Warner rules call for an 80 yard field. Mokena outgained Cal Park 164 yards to 73 yards, Mokena making eight first downs. Terry Ryan was offensive star for Mokena with a 57 yard touchdown run. Ken Fortman almost scored on a long pass from Tobin Krueger. On an 80 yard field Fortman would have had a touchdown. He was tackled on the 9-yard line.

Vikings Romp Over Lincoln-Way, 20-0

BY NORM BEEBE
The Vikings of Homewood-Flossmoor added another victory to their string of two by defeating the Knights 20-0.

For the Knights, this defeat put them 1 for 2 in conference play and 1 for 3 in overall play. The Vikings are undefeated in conference play with a respectable 3-0 record.
Steve Bittner, fullback for the Vikings was the spark that started the flame leading to the defeat of the Knights. Bittner carried the skin 19 times for a total rushing yards of 71. Bon Monaghan, quarterback connected with 6 out of 11 passes for a total of 136 yards in the air.

The Vikings scored their first touchdown in the second quarter when Bill Colbrese plowed 3 yards for the first six pointer of the game. The conversion attempt by Dennis Sprinkels was good for one point.
The Knights started to look alive early in the third quarter when Jimmy Markl, junior halfback, chalked up an 11 yard run, and a 17 yard run, only to have the skin taken by H-F after a fumble.

H-F again added six points to their score in the third quarter when Jack Ginter scampered three yards to pay dirt. The conversion attempt by Sprinkel was blocked by the defensive Knights.

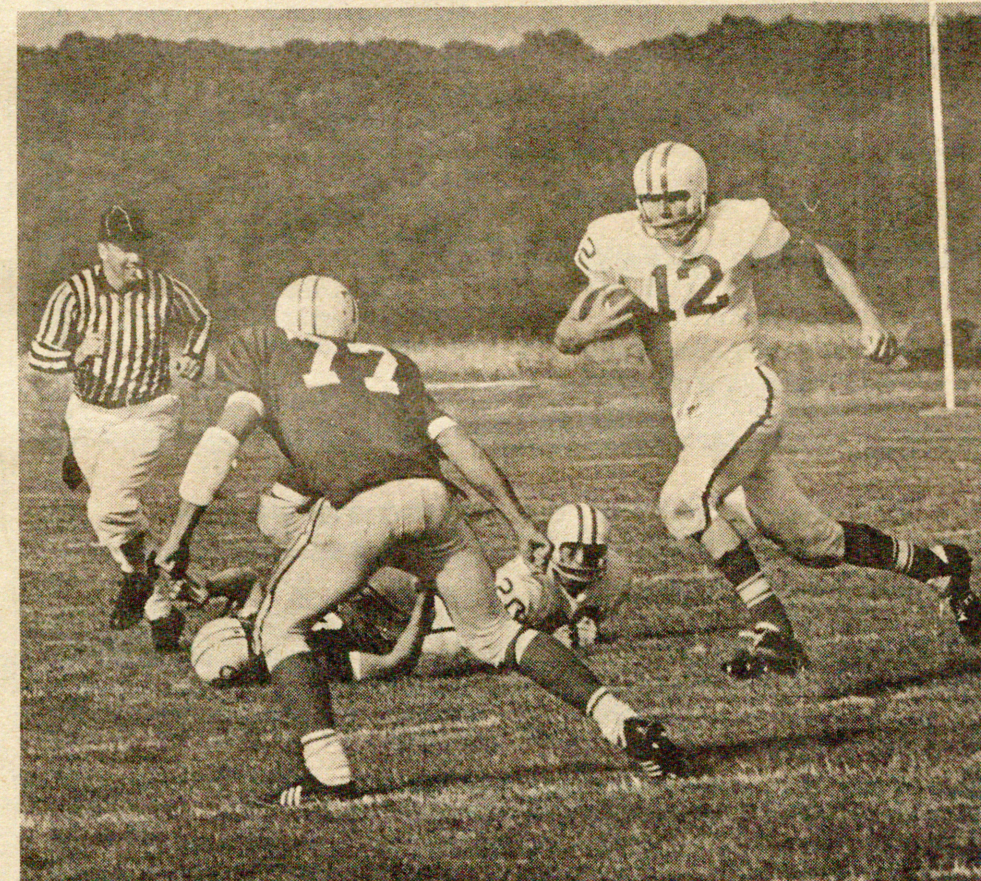

In the fourth quarter Jimmy Markl again sparked a drive by rushing 18 yards. On the next play H-F intercepted a pass intended for Tom Hamilton. The Vikings profited by the interception, quarterback Bob Monaghan completed a long 63 yard pass to Marsh which tallied up another 6 pointer.

Sprinkels conversion attempt was good to close the game: Lincoln-Way 0 - Homewood-Flossmoor 20.

SOME DAYS things just don't break right and last Saturday was one of those days for Howard Grimes, No. 12, a Lincoln-Way back. At this juncture he would have liked to have run the length of the field, and would have, but for this No. 77 fellow from Homewood-Flossmoor. A fraction of a second after this picture was taken another exposure would have shown Grimes hit. The Knights fought valiantly but couldn't stave off the Vikings and so the Lincoln-Way homecoming was not a bright one. (Graphic Newspapers Photo)

Tenor Will Give Concert At Trinity

Robert Gartside, professional American tenor who is at present the Director of Music of SHAPE Protestant chapels at NATO Headquarters in Paris, will present a public recital on October 20, under the auspices of Trinity Christian college at Palos Heights.

Mr. Gartside is visiting Trinity on his tour in the United States for the Association of American Colleges. He creates his own program both musically and textually to interest the expected audience of college students and community. His program on Tuesday, will include selections from Dowland, Schubert, Ives and Debussy.

Trinity college and its student body is sponsoring Mr. Gartside's appearance as part of its cultural service to the community. Also included in this year's program are a foreign film series, guest speakers, and evening classes.

This concert will be given at Chicago Christian high school, 12001 S. Oak Park Avenue, Palos Heights, Ill., beginning at 8 PM. Tickets are $1.50 for adults; students rate, $1.00. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

apples the sargent crab can be planted. If not consumed by wildlife, the apples lend color to the landscape from September to December. This fall color is further enhanced by its orange-red foliage, a feature not common in the crab apples.

The six to eight foot sargent crab is the smallest of the flowering crabs. It's so small that it is almost shrub-like in character. In fact, it grows as wide or wider than its height. In spite of its small overall size, the blooms are very showy. Fragrant half inch white blossoms literally make the tree a mound of flowers.

The last member of this trio of dwarf crabs is the tea crab. Strictly speaking, the tea crab is not a dwarf since isolated branches may reach 18 feet. However, the upper two-thirds of the tree is loose and open while the lower third is compact, thus creating the impression of a dwarf. As with the bechtel crab, the fruit is usually of little interest. However the bloom more than compensates for this lack. The large fragrant blooms start as deep pink buds that change color as they mature. As the buds open, the color is diluted by the expanding petals to a final white with just a hint of crab apple trees are also among the most attractive.

The bechtel crab, the sargent crab and the tea crab, all have qualities that make them unusually attractive in the small city yard. They are of compact size, unquestionably hardy, produce attractive spring flowers and quickly reach their mature height. Planted near a patio they give a flowering accent in spring and welcome shade in summer.

The bechtel crab can be considered a native of Illinois. It was discovered as a chance seedling in a fence row sometime before the Civil War by E. A. Bechtel, a nurseryman near Staunton, Ill. Compared to many crab tree varieties which may reach 40 feet the bechtel crab is small. The usual mature height is ten feet, although specimens up to 20 feet have been observed. Its most spectacular character is the bloom of double fragrant light pink flowers that hang in clusters along the outer branches. Although the bloom is showy, only a small number of pea-sized apples are formed.

Monday Is Institute Day At CSHS, Stagg

The word buzzes quickly thru the halls of Carl Sandburg and Amos Alonzo Stagg high schools. Beaming students tell each other, "No school Monday, it's teachers' institute." The teachers, too, make plans, but for them it is not a day off.

On Oct. 19, more than 1,000 teachers from the Southwest Suburban Conference will meet to compare programs and exchange ideas. Teachers from Stagg high, a member of the Southeast Conference, will also attend.

The sessions will be split between Reavis and Homewood-Flossmoor high schools, since no one school can accommodate the entire group. A few departments, generally those with specialized interests, will meet at other places.

In the past, all Cook county teachers attempted joint meetings, but these were discontinued because the groups overtaxed the facilities available to them.

At the Monday meetings, teachers will hear specialists in their fields discuss new methods and procedures. The program is designed to be both practical and inspirational.

pink.

Because of its shape, the tea crab is useful for planting close to walks, patios and driveways. Its upright non-spreading "V" shape doesn't interfere with traffic.

If you cannot decide which of this trio to use in your landscape, resolve the problem by painting the trio as a unit. They can be arranged as tall, medium and short if you plant in this order: tea crab, bechtel crab and sargent crab. They can also be arranged in order of bloom. The tea crab blooms in mid-spring, the sargent crab in late spring, and the bechtel crab in very late spring.

TO SERVE YOU

While cudgeling our thinking processes to produce an editorial in commemoration of National Newspaper Week (Oct. 11-17) we came across a gem in the Littleton (Col.) Independent that so completely expresses our feelings that we are reprinting it:

Instead of telling you how good newspapers are, we think you are entitled to know what a newspaper tries to do.

Its goal is to help you understand your environment and to help you change that environment when this seems wise.

At this modest-size newspaper there are sixteen men and women attempting to pass along the facts you should know. You are made aware of regulations like leash laws, trash-burning laws, and zoning ordinances so that you can keep out of trouble. You are told how to get your garbage picked up, where to dump your trash, what's on at the movies, and what the title of next Sunday's sermon is.

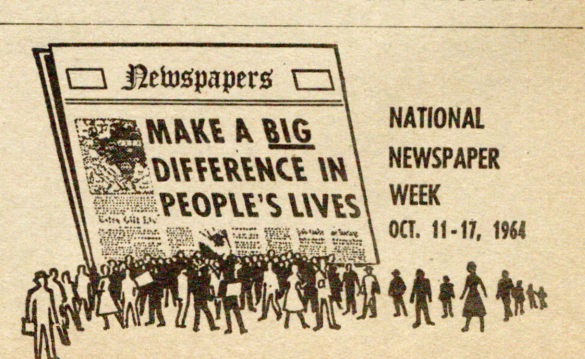

You learn the hours of the post-office and the courthouse, the time you pay your taxes without penalty, and about any contagious diseases in your neighborhood.

You also discover proposed changes in school programs, mill levies, employment prospects, and recreational projects. You can turn to your newspaper for reliable shopping news.

If something goes wrong in the community, most people look to their local newspaper for a remedy. Courageous newspapers respond to these situations and generally get them corrected—often losing thousands of dollars in business during the crusade.

Newspapers are human institutions guided by a great tradition. Unlike the press in most countries, the American newspapers are self-supporting organizations. They don't depend on a political party, a church, or an industrial corporation to stay alive. Consequently, the United States newspaper is as free to communicate with its public as any on earth. This is not to claim perfection. The press, when it is wise, listens to critical comment as readily as it expresses critical comment of others.
